It is true that a party is 'a body of men united for promoting, by their joint endeavors, the national interest, upon some particular principle in which they are all agreed." The duty imposed upon such a party, in order to insure success, is constant vigilance. It is in a position of perpetual hostility to its opposing party or parties. Severe and arduous contest is essential to its success—nay to the continuance of its own existence. Now, we all know that the active men of every political party are comparatively few in number of the House of Representatives, he voted against a bill allowing when he was a member of the House of Representatives, he voted against a bill allowing when he was a member of the House of Representatives, he voted against a bill allowing when he was a member of the House of Representatives, he voted against a bill allowing when he was a member of the House of Representatives, he voted against a bill allowing when he was a member of the House of Representatives, he voted against a bill allowing when he was a member of the House of Representatives, he voted against a bill allowing when he was a member of the House of Representatives, he voted against a bill allowing on the Edmund Brooke, of Georgetown in the collumbia, to bring into the District of Columbia, to bring into the District of Columbia, to bring into the District of Virginia.
